

YOUNG PLAYWRIGHTS FOR CHANGE Competition

Regional Playwriting Contest for Middle School Students

Empathy in Action: Combating Bullying

The Rose Theater is looking for 10 minute plays, about ANTI-BULLYING!

One GRAND PRIZE WINNER receives a full production of their play in The Young Playwrights Festival, publication of their play in a national anthology of plays, and entry into the national competition (with a chance to fly to San Francisco, CA)!

FOUR WINNERS receive a staged reading of their play at a special event with The Young Playwrights Festival, May 4th, 6th and 7th!
AND free tuition to the Young Playwrights Class in 17-18!

EVERYONE who enters receives free tickets to The Young Playwrights Festival at The Rose!
Every contestant also receives one page of professional feedback about their play

TEACHERS: The class that submits the most entries wins a free playwriting workshop with award-winning playwright, Brian Guehring.

Deadline for Entry:
January 15th, 2017

Enjoy being creative?

Enjoy writing?

Want to see your words
come to life?

Want to say something about
STOPPING BULLYING?

Want to win
cool prizes?

To enter and for more information, email briang@rosetheater.org or visit <http://www.rosetheater.org/education/teens/>

