the Rose
Theater Guild
2018-2019

Our purpose is to maintain a volunteer group dedicated to the advancement and growth of The Rose through fundraising and friend-raising efforts.

All funds raised by The Rose Guild directly support The Rose Theater and its wide array of programs. Since its creation in 1985, the Guild has raised more than $1.4 million in support of The Rose Theater. The Guild is fortunate to have members who make it possible to support such a wonderful agency that is both a cornerstone in Omaha's history and a thriving center for children's education and entertainment.

The Rose Mission

The Rose Theater is committed to enriching the lives of children and families through live theater and arts education.

The Rose Founding

In 1948, The Omaha Junior Theater was created by Emmy Gifford and two volunteers from the Junior League of Omaha who were inspired to start a theater for young audiences in Omaha. The name was later changed to The Omaha Theater Company, which we still use to this day. The Omaha Theater Company was relocated to The Rose Blumkin Performing Arts Center, formerly The Astro Theater, after a $10.3 million renovation spearheaded by Susie Buffett, The Rose Blumkin Performing Arts Center Foundation President.

The Rose Present Day

The Rose Theater is home to the Omaha Theater Company – the only resident, touring, professional theater company in Omaha and one of the largest in the country! The Rose is accessible to all children. No child is ever turned away for economic reasons. “Pay-what-you-can” evenings are offered for most productions. Thousands of tickets are given to area youth-serving charities year after year. Live performances are shared from two stages at The Rose Theater: the main stage and the intimate Hitchcock Theater. Professional actor/educators offer classes in theater, directing, musical theater, singing, dancing, and more. Children ages 4 to 18 are welcome.
