A Bucket of Blessings Fact Sheet

- Date/Time: October 12 - November 3, 2019
Saturdays at 9:30 am & 11 am, Sundays at 9:30 am & 11 am
- Credits: By Madhuri Shekar.
Adapted from the book A Bucket of Blessings
by Surishtha and Kabir Sehgal.
- Location: The Rose Theater, 2001 Farnam Street, Hitchcock Stage
- Show Description: In the majestic mountains of India, Monkey spends her days playing with her animal friends in a lovely jungle, but she notices that it has become hot and dry and the rain hasn't fallen in the rainforest for many weeks. Monkey's mother tells her of an old legend that a dancing peacock can bring the rains. But when Monkey and her friend Baby Elephant try dancing to no avail, she decides she must go on a quest to find the magical Peacock and return water to the jungle. Based on a magnificent myth from India and exploring the rich beauty of Southeastern Asia, A Bucket of Blessings offers our youngest audience members a lovely legend of play and perseverance as an introduction to the theater.
- Show Specifics: Best for families with children ages 2 and up
