When her well-meaning—but self-centered—fairy godmother, Lucinda, bestows a “gift” of obedience on Ella, she fails to consider the complicated consequences. Ella’s mother warns her to never tell others of her “gift,” but when her mother is gone, her often absent father, Sir Peter, remarries. Soon Ella finds herself shipped off to finishing school and at the mercy of self-serving stepsisters who sniff-out her secret. Will Ella’s true talent for learning languages—and a developing friendship with Prince Charmont—allow her to curtail the curse of her unwanted gift and live a life not controlled by others? This brand-new musical adaptation of a modern fairytale favorite offers a tried-and-true kind of storytelling with a thought-provoking, twist!
